Being as slope is shown East of this line and the lot appears to get steeper the farther West is goes, a non-buildable area should be shown West of the slope arrows

Verify this dimension is correct

What is this line?

How wide is the proposed dedication? The dimension of 64.23' is confusing, not sure what it is

A 10' public utility and drainage easement must be shown along the frontage

Verify this dimension is correct

An easement needs to be shown over the existing storm drain piping

Area on lot and the boundary description are different
