

There is one other school in Weber County where residential backyards border a parking lot.

At South Ogden Jr. High, the parking borders new houses and there is an 8 ft fence along that side where their backyards are.

