Comments

CUP 2012-01 for a heliport in the F-40 zone was approved by the Weber County Commission on April 10, 2012. The County Commission placed two conditions on the heliport including a December-April operation time frame and daylight hour operations only. See County Commisison minutes from April 10, 2012 for further information. Operations must take place in the approved location and all applicable FAA and other review agency requirements must be complied with. A business licens is required for commercial operations.
