

The west half of this 5.65 acre lot is used for pasture of typically 2 to 4 cattle year depending on the drought conditions and the east half is used for hay. Typically 3 to 5 tons of hay are produced per summer on the lot, again depending on the moisture received throughout the year.