Conditional Use Permit Application

A conditional use application is required for conditional uses listed in the Weber County Zoning Ordinance zone regulations. This Conditional Use application identifies submittal requirements and processes for each desired conditional use.

22C-2. Conditional Use Permit

A Conditional Use Permit shall be required for all uses listed as Conditional Uses in the zoning regulations.

The applicant of a conditional use proposal shall be the recorded owner(s) or an authorized agent. The applicant must demonstrate that the contemplated use is compatible with the zoning ordinance standards and that the use would be essential or desirable to the public convenience or welfare in that area, that it will not impair the integrity and character of the surrounding property, or that the use can be made compatible by imposing conditions. These conditions may include, but are not limited to, the size, shape, location and topography of the site, the hours and days of operation, how to minimize environmental impacts such as noise and air pollution, location of vehicle access points, outdoor lighting, landscaping standards, fencing, water and wildlife protection, etc.

A pre-application meeting is required prior to application submittal; please call (801) 399-8791 to make an appointment. Date of pre-application review meeting: _____ Time: _____

- Staff member assigned to process application: _____

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Thirty (30) days prior to the applicable Planning Commission meeting

The Western Weber County Township Planning Commission holds their meetings on the 2nd Tuesday of the month.

The Ogden Valley Township Planning Commission holds their meetings on the 4th Tuesday of the month.

Purpose and Intent of Conditional Uses

The purpose and intent of Conditional Uses is to provide for additional review of uses to ensure compatible integration with the surrounding area.

Review Criteria

The Planning Commission shall approve, approve with conditions, or deny an application for a conditional use based on findings of fact with respect to each of the following criteria found in the Weber County Zoning Ordinance 22C-5-1-5 as follows:

22C-5. Basis for Issuance of Conditional Use Permit

The Planning Commission shall not authorize a Conditional Use Permit unless evidence is presented to establish:

1. That the proposed use of the particular location is necessary or desirable to provide a service or facility which will contribute to the general well-being of the community, and
2. That such use will not, under the circumstances of the particular case and the conditions imposed, be detrimental to the health, safety and general welfare of persons nor injurious to property or improvements in the community, but will be compatible with and complimentary to the existing surrounding uses, buildings and structures when considering traffic generation, parking, building design and location, landscaping and signs, and
3. That the proposed use will comply with the regulations and conditions specified in this Ordinance for such use, and
4. That the proposed use conforms to the goals, policies and governing principles and land use of the General Plan for Weber County

5. That the proposed use will not lead to the deterioration of the environment or ecology of the general area, nor will produce conditions or emit pollutants of such a type or of such a quantity so as to detrimentally effect, to any appreciable degree, public and private properties including the operation of existing uses thereon, in the immediate vicinity of the community or area as a whole.

Appeal Process

The decision of the Planning Commission may be appealed to the County Commission by filing such appeal within 15 days after the date of the decision of the Planning Commission.

The County Commission may uphold or reverse the decision of the Planning Commission and impose any additional conditions that it may deem necessary in granting an appeal. The decision of the County Commission shall be final.

For Your Information

Other Weber County Zoning Ordinance chapter requirements may apply to this Conditional Use as determined in the pre-application meeting.

Unless there is substantial action under a Conditional Use permit within a maximum period of one (1) year of its issuance, the Conditional Use Permit shall expire. The Planning Commission may grant a maximum extension of six (6) months under exceptional circumstances. Upon expiration of any extension of time granted by the Planning Commission, or failure to complete all conditions and requirements of the Conditional Use Permit within an eighteen (18) month period of time, the approval for the Conditional Use Permit shall expire and become null and void.

When an approved Conditional Use has been discontinued and/or abandoned for a period of one (1) year, the Conditional Use Permit becomes null and void. In order to restore the Conditional Use, a new application shall be filed for review and consideration by the Planning Commission.

This application can be filled out online at the following Planning Division web site: www.co.weber.ut.us/planning. Copies of the applicable Weber County Zoning Ordinances and other helpful information are also available at this web site.
