

Existing sign on property for Lakeview Haven. The property came with the name and the sign we thought it was important to honor the history. The sign is where the driveway to the front access to the property splits from the main road. The road on the right continues up the hill where there is overflow parking.

