RESORT MASTER PLAN

The information and/or renderings herein are for the sole purpose of depicting a possible use of the properties. In an effort to continuously improve our community, the developer reserves the right to make changes without notice. For details of existing developed areas, refer to the recorded plat at Weber County. The owners of the property and their successors and assigns reserve the right to make zoning, development and/or use changes for any part(s) of the property. No federal agency has judged the merits or value, if any, of this property. This does not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy where void by law.
